

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

How can any member of the Colin Powell family, who have benefited so greatly from American freedom, even consider reducing the freedom of others via lack of diversity in media? For that matter, how can any black man work for the Bush family -- who proposed sterilization of "undesirables" -- mainly, Negroes.
